A Sound Platform for the CLOTHING BUSINESS

A poet (Bliss Carman) describing an ideal friend said of him that he was

"No cynic and no reformer---just A plain observer of ought and must."

Which, when you come to think of it describes a mighty fine character.

Supposing this idea ran right through business---everybody observing OUGHT and MUST to the end of the limit!

'Twould be goodbye to cynicism and distrust, double-dealing and over-reaching, prevarication and grabbing. Everything would be right and straight and true.

It's a platform that just exactly suits us. We like it and we commend it.

Which leads us to say that if you like to do business on this plane and you're in the market for anything in the clothing line, we're the folk you're looking for.

CARLOADS OF FIGHT FANS WILL GO TO CALIFORNIA

New York, April 2.—Nearly everybody of prominence in pugilistic circles is using gilt edge persuasion to gather enough persons to make up special trains to San Francisco about the time the Jeffries-Johnson fust is scheduled.

Old time promoters and all the new men in the business are canvassing among their friends to try to get enough patrons of the ring to do some business with the railroad companies. The impression is that something like one thousand pugilistic fans will leave New York for San Francisco to witness the battle. Maybe there will be that number, but the probabilities are there will not. In the first place, it is a difficult matter to get a large number of persons together who can spare the time and money to make a fifteen or twenty day trip for the express purpose of looking at a prize fight.

The majority have not the money to squander and few have the time. Both are items in this world of competition and strife, and what is more, there is not the money in sporting circles that there was some years ago. Those who recall the celebrated championship battle between Sullivan and Corbett at New Orleans, in 1892, when money was much more plentiful with some folks than it is to-day, will remember the fact that there were very few loaded coaches of sports men from New York on that occasion. The late P. Jay Donohue tried to get up a trainload, and all he could muster throughout the city was about one good carload.

California is farther. New Orleans is less than fifty hours' ride from the city, while San Francisco is a good four days away, with a whole lot of desert and wild country to traverse. The trip is not an enviable one in July. Those who have the time and money should grasp the opportunity to make it, if only to see the country.

The promoters of these would-be excursions will find it a hard matter to pick up enough men to make up a trainload, though the rates made by the agents are very flattering. The proposition is to take a trainload for the lump sum of $250 per head, which is to include transportation, meals, berth and hotel accommodations at all stopping places for something like fifteen days.

How this is to be accomplished is somewhat misty to those who know California during busy times. Still those are the figures and inducements offered by the agents. The regular berth will run up to nearly $200 for a round trip, and if several days are to be spent in San Francisco it is safe to say that the hotel bills will be mighty high, for Californians certainly know how to jump rates when there are tourists flying about looking for a bed.

Carlloads for Regulars.
The best proposition for promoters of parties would be to get sufficient to fill one or two cars and engage them on the regular trains, as there will hardly be a sufficient number to make up a half dozen special trains which are being proposed. Tom O'Rourke, who has had some experience in such matters, has the right idea. He intends to try to get as many as he can from New York and then pick up a carload in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Pittsburgh, and by so doing make up a solid train of five coaches.

One thing is certain. While a round trip ticket looks inviting for $250, it must not be supposed that sum will cover all the expense. There are incidents that will make quite a hole in a $100 bill. Any one contemplating the ride should at least be "heeled" to something like $400, and he will be lucky to get out at that.

THREE HITS OFF MATHEWSON.
McGraw's Giants Play Game Against Greensboro Team.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Greensboro, N. C., April 2.—Three thousand people saw Johnny McGraw and his bunch of Giants trim Beusse's "champs" here this afternoon, the final score showing 3 for New York and 2 for Greensboro.

Mathewson, Klawitter and Marquard twirled for New York, and the champs made a total of five hits, three of which were secured off Mathewson. It was the first game for the locals, and they made a favorable impression under these circumstances.

HEAVY SCHEDULE FOR V. P. I. TEAM

Seventeen Successive Games on Home Grounds—Track Athletics.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Blacksburg, April 2.—The two games scheduled to be played with Delaware College here this afternoon were cancelled, and the next game will be with Randolph-Macon Tuesday afternoon. The schedule this season is the heaviest ever made up, and seventeen successive games are to be played on the home grounds. The team will not leave college until May 3, when they will play St. John's, Georgetown, Eastern College, V. M. I. and Washington and Lee.

Such perfect weather as that of the last two weeks has never been known here at this time of the year, and it has allowed Coach Boeock to give his men practice every afternoon. It is his purpose, however, to give every candidate with the slightest chance for a place on the team plenty of opportunity to show what he can do, and the regular varsity has not been made up. It is further his rule to have several men in shape to fill any position at a moment's notice, and this plan certainly proved successful in football last fall. So it is not unlikely that there may be changes all through the season.

Taking the line-up in the game with V. M. I. at Roanoke, Easter Monday, as a sample, the regular team will probably read something like this: Pitchers, Renfer, Jones and Hodgson; Catchers, Legge, Stoneburner and Jones; Infield, Hobbie, first base; Hicks, third base; Holzman, second base; Renfer, centre field; Stuart, shortstop; Hurt, shortstop last year, is being run hard for the place by Stuart, a new man, and centre is uncertain. Fuqua, Hicks and Renner were on last year's varsity, and are almost sure of staying there. Hobbie is also pretty safe for first.

Games are scheduled continuously on the home grounds from April 5 to May 7, with R. M. C. Bingham School (two games), Roanoke League, U. S. C., Roanoke College, Georgetown, Ky. (two games), Washington College (two games), N. C. A. and M.; St. Joseph, V. M. I.; University of Maryland (two games), Emory and Henry (two games). Then the team will leave for a trip, playing Eastern College, May 10; Georgetown, May 11; St. John's, May 12; Eastern, May 13; V. M. I., May 14; Washington and Lee, May 15 and 17.

Track Athletics.
Due to the greatly improved athletic field, the new cinder track, and more than all to the hustling ability of J. B. Skinner, the manager of the track team, that branch of sports promises to equal the others in point of interest this year. Mr. Skinner, who is a Fauquier county man, has arranged a meet with Washington and Lee, at Lexington; one with N. C. A. and M. here, and has another almost settled, and the annual field day late in May will break the records. There are many candidates out every afternoon. J. L. Hughes, the star basketball player, is captain of the team.

STALLION DIES AT WILTON-ON-JAMES

Entorpe Performer, 21 Years Old, Winner at Many Shows Here and Abroad.

The hackney stallion, "Entorpe Performer," one of the few remaining sons of the invincible "Mathies," of Landisboro, and considered one of the most wonderful horses "ever shown," died last Monday at the home of his owner at Wilton-on-James. Entorpe Performer was imported into this country as a three-year-old by George F. Bourne, of New York, and headed his magnificent stud at Indian Neck, L. I., until a few years ago, when he was brought to Virginia.

He was bred by Charles Mitchell, of Market Wotton, Yorkshire, Eng., and out of a mare shown at the principal shows in England was only twice defeated. His only defeat in this country during the three years of his active career in the show ring was before his retirement to the stud, was in the fall of '92, just after his importation and when hardly off his sea-legs. He won consistently in this country up to 1896, after which time he was not shown, but retired to Commodore's Bourne's stud.

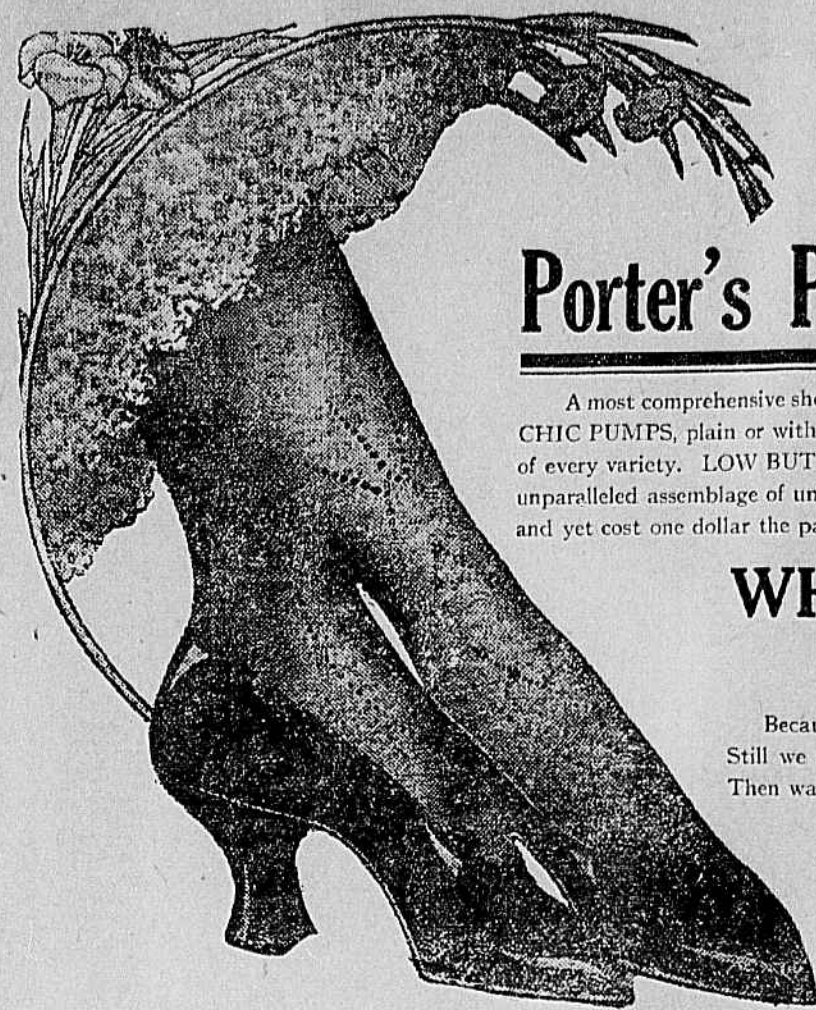

Green Day Defeats Burkeville.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Green Bay, Va., April 2.—At Burkeville to-day the Green Bay baseball team defeated the Burkeville nine by the score of 10 to 7. Green Bay will play Keysville next Friday on the home diamond.

TRAINER WELSH TO HANDLE BIG STABLE

New York, April 2.—Thomas Welsh, one of the best trainers on the American turf, will have a greater number of thoroughbreds in his care on the New York tracks this year than ever before, and as a result he will probably cut an important figure in the calculations of the racing public.

S. C. Hildreth and James Rowe have powerful stables in training, the former training for himself and the latter for James R. Keene, but Welsh, handling the property of various turfmen, is expected to make Hildreth and Rowe extend themselves in the struggle for winning honors.

Welsh will train more than forty horses for the Eastern campaign. He will keep his old engagement as trainer for the Newcastle stable, Robert Foreyth Little and Thomas Monahan, but he will also train many two-year-olds belonging to August Belmont and Harry Payne Whitney.

Welsh was asked last fall to take hold of Mr. Belmont's young horses, and he readily consented. He has them well in hand just now at Gravesend, and expects some of them to show sensational form.

But within a week Welsh will receive a dozen of the Whitney two-year-olds from Brookdale Farm—the best in the young millionaire's string—and will try to have a few of them ready for Aqueduct.

Welsh has more high class two-year-olds, the property of the Newcastle stable, including several by the French stallion Adam, and is also training Mr. Little's three-year-old Prince Imperial, Mr. Monahan's Pretend and the Newcastle stables handicap candidates, Wise Mason and Glucose. The Squire, who will wear the Little silks, is also working well under the veteran trainer's supervision.

Will Have Busy Season.
With so many horses under his wing Welsh will be kept extremely busy every day strapping on saddles and giving instructions to jockey Guy Garner, who is under contract to the Newcastle stable and will be managed by the trainer.

Training for so many different owners—five of them—may result in a confusing mixup some day, because there is no rule coupling horses in the betting when they are saddled by the same trainer, though owned by different interests.

Suppose in a two-year-old stakes Welsh saddles horses bearing the Whitney, Belmont and Newcastle colors. In the West these horses would run coupled in the odds, so as to avoid complications resulting from fouls or queer horsemanship.

WILL MEET KETCHEL.
Papke to Fight for Middleweight Boxing Championship.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, April 2.—"Billy" Papke, the prizefighter, disgusted with his inability to get on a fight with European pugilists, came back to this country to-day on the Lorraine. Papke said he had heard from Promoter C. Froth that he could get a match with Stanley Ketchel for the middleweight title soon.

Papke fought "Willie" Lewis abroad in March. On his way to California Papke will stop off at his home at Kewanee, Ill.

ROXBORO HIGH SCHOOL LOSES.
Cluster Springs Wins Fourth Game of Season by Score of 15 to 8.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cluster Springs, Va., April 2.—Cluster Springs Academy won the fourth game of the season to-day, defeating the Roxboro High School on the home grounds by the score of 15 to 8. The academy outplayed the high school in every department. Loutha did excellent work with the stick for the former, getting two three-baggers and a single. Dowell, the star catcher for Cluster Springs, had the misfortune to get his finger badly mashed, just before the game began.
